

ALL OF THE COURSE MATERIALS YOU NEED

Owned and operated by the University of Pittsburgh, The University Store on Fifth ensures that our students, faculty and staff have the tools necessary to successfully navigate their Pitt experience.

- The University Store on Fifth has all textbooks and course materials needed for every class at Pitt.
- We offer a variety of formats, including rentals, along with a price-comparison service available on our website.
- We make it a priority to carry as many used textbooks as possible.

Course Material Options New | Used | eBooks | Course Packets | In-store Rentals

- Students can go to pitt.verbacompare.com to compare University Store prices with those of other major retailers.
- Students can purchase textbooks from our store, or from comparison vendors, all from our website.

- Inclusive Access course materials give students access to digital course materials assigned by faculty members for select classes and are billed to a student's account. This material provides discounted, accessible, interactive and adaptive content directly in Courseweb.

Please Note: Course materials are available for purchase both online and in-store. Online orders can be shipped or picked up at The University Store on Fifth.

Buyback Service

- Buyback service is offered in our store daily with expanded hours during finals each semester.
- Students are encouraged to sell their used textbooks during finals week when used value is at its highest!

Visit the University Store on Fifth today or log on to our website www.pittuniversitystore.com to learn more about our services and products. We hope to see you soon! Hail to Pitt!
